

JOB DESCRIPTION

| | |
|-------------------|-----------------------------|
| Job Title: | Healthcare Software Analyst |
|-------------------|-----------------------------|

PERSON SPECIFICATION

| Skill Set | Essential Criteria | Desirable Criteria | Assessment Method |
|--------------------------------------|---|--|---|
| Qualifications & Training | Honours degree from a University | Honours degree in maths or a science subject User Experience Design (UXD) qualifications or experience | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CV |
| Experience & Knowledge | Work as a healthcare software analyst including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Requirements gathering • Workflow analysis • Usage data analysis • Define business requirements and use cases • Knowledge of the SDLC Writing of functional specifications Designing features for clinical healthcare systems Working with the NHS, HSCIC, NHS Digital or another healthcare IT provider | Software testing experience | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CV • Interview |
| Skills & Abilities | Ability to explain complex ideas in a clear and logical manner Good written English Works on own initiative Good knowledge of Microsoft products including proficient with Microsoft Excel Ability to work unsupervised to tight deadlines | Ability to speak to ophthalmologists about ophthalmology with confidence Proven ability to find novel solutions to difficult problems | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CV • Interview |

| | | | |
|---------------------------|---|--|-------------|
| Personal Qualities | Strong work ethic Highly motivated Positive 'can do' attitude Meticulous attention to detail Analytical mind with a problem-solving aptitude Passionate about reliable, elegant, usable software Good communication and organisational skills | Proven abilities to take initiative and be innovative Willingness to undertake further self-development | • Interview |
|---------------------------|---|--|-------------|